November 25, 2021

Advt No: SERC/HR/PrAssoc/1

Positions Open for Project Associates [System Engineers]

Supercomputing Education Research Center (SERC) is looking to hire Project Associates to help in management of its High Performance Computing (HPC) facility in Indian Institute of Science, Bangalore, India. The details of the position and necessary qualification required are as follows.

Job Description: Roles and responsibilities include providing HPC (High Performance Computing) System Administration Services, including hardware and software management for computing and storage.

Educational Qualifications Required: BE/BTech in CS/IT/EE/ECE/ME/equivalent or MCA or M.Sc (CS). First Class as declared by the University.

Experience Required: Fresh graduates can apply. Familiarity with Programming and Linux operating system is expected.

Age Limit: 25 years.

Emoluments: Rs.25,000/- + HRA.

Duration of Employment: 1 year.

Application Procedure: The detailed biodata including complete academic details from Class 10 onwards should be emailed to positions.serc@iisc.ac.in with Subject line "Application for Short-Term Project Associates" by December 15, 2021.

Selection: The candidate's academic performance, namely the marks obtained, will be considered for short-listing. Short-listed candidates will be called for online/in-person interview.

Other details:

- The candidate, if selected, must be willing to join immediately and no later than two weeks after the offer is made.
- The candidate, if selected, will be required to be present in person in SERC.
- No accommodation will be available on the Institute campus.